

Area Agency on Aging Connections

Vintage celebrates 50th anniversary of serving older adults in the community

Vintage Advisory Council members Emma Mosley and Carol Jean Lacy enjoy seeing each other at the 50th anniversary celebration.

Vintage Center for Active Adults, a service of Familylinks, paid tribute to its 50th anniversary in late September with a Wine and Tapas Celebration. The event was attended by members, volunteers, supporters and funders. Primary event sponsors were UPMC Health Plan, Community Life and Kate Freed, with additional support from several friends of Vintage.

Vintage has come a long way from its humble beginnings in 1973 when it started in the basement of East End Christian Church as a joint project of the Junior League of Pittsburgh and East End Cooperative Ministries. Today, it serves more than 1,000 seniors a year, with an average of 135 participants daily and a membership of 800+ older adults. The center offers a wide array of services, including fitness classes and a fitness studio, senior technology support, fine arts classes, trips and more.

Vintage Center of Active Adults is located at 401 North Highland Avenue in Pittsburgh. To learn more about joining Vintage, call (412) 361-5003, ext. 104 or visit familylinks.org.

Vintage Members were treated to wine and tapas refreshments.

Vintage Board President and event sponsor Kate Freed welcomes guests.

PA State Representative LaTasha Mayes socializes with event participants.