

In 2018, Vintage celebrated its 45th anniversary as a nonprofit agency serving older adults. Originally housed in a church basement, Vintage has grown to become a vibrant center considered a local model for senior health and wellness. As an organization, Vintage is firmly committed to its mission: To improve and influence the experience of aging in our community.

Vintage continues to strive for excellence. The annual program evaluation identified the following strengths:

- Positive growth in comparison to the County-wide senior center network (+6% vs -26%).
- Success in attracting diverse users across race and age.
- Wide array of program offerings particularly in health and wellness activities.
- Positive results on the AAA network wide survey, with user satisfaction matching or exceeding the network average for the majority of queries.

- Success in replicating the positive results of Better Choices, Better Health in the South Hills geographic area through the Jefferson Regional Foundation grant award.
- Success with new initiatives, such as the Comcast Cyber Security for Seniors Program.
- Success with annual Quality Improvement Planning process.
